Mr. Howland Wood,
The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway & 155th St.,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

When in 1922 President Harding sent me on a mission to Russia, I had a chance to take up some of the current moneys. I take pleasure in presenting to your Society specimens of that money. I have but three examples of the suppressed propaganda money of 1919 and should be glad to loan the same indefinitely if you so desire.

Very truly yours,

Meyer Bloomfield

Dear Sir:

I beg to thank you for the several Russian notes which you sent ~~to~~ us the other day. I think that only the three-rouble note is represented in our collection. We, however, do have several denominations of what I think you term 'propaganda money'; that is with 'Workers of the World Unite' in a number of different languages.

Again thanking you on behalf of the Society, I am

Yours very truly,

Curator.
